

TREX SADDLE
Decks by JRW Portland, Oregon

CREATE YOUR SPACE™ DREAM DECK IDEA STARTERS

This deck has a nautical sense. You can close your eyes and feel the planks under your bare feet. Its clean, spare lines wrap around the house on two sides, making its length appear as endless as the view and just as rich in possibilities. It's a place to greet the sun in the morning, the day stretching before you. In the evening, it's a haven for quiet reflection...to escape the hum of the party inside...or to just bid good day to the moon before you turn in for the night. This design is for you if you know you want a deck that combines form and function, with just the right amount of architectural flair.
